Join Us for A&M-Texarkana Hockey Night

The evening of Friday, February 25, 2005 will be a fun filled one for students, alumni, staff and faculty of A&M-Texarkana as they gather together to root on the Texarkana Bandits. The game starts at 7:05pm and you can order your tickets for only $5 (children under 4 are free) from Sonya Jewell, Student Services Office at 903-223-3064.

This will be a fun time to not only enjoy watching the game, but also check out the Bandit merchandise. If you are a member of the Alumni Association and bring your card with you that night, you'll receive a 15% discount off Bandit merchandise. Please join us as we have a great evening and show the Bandits that Eagles have a lot of pride too!!

Eagles Do Fly Higher

Karmyn Tyler, a Lifetime member of the A&M-Texarkana Alumni Association, has done some extraordinary things with her talent and is continuing to make her dreams come true. Tyler, a 2003 graduate who earned a Bachelor of Applied Arts and Sciences, has released an album entitled "Karmyn Tyler" which revives great jazz music from the 1920's and 1930's.

Tyler showcased her new album to an audience of 1,200 at the Perot Theatre in Texarkana, Texas in November 2004. Tyler is a triple threat, not only singing, but also dancing and acting. She has been in numerous commercials, theatre productions and films including "Alabama Love Story". She has also been a featured extra on such television shows as "Just Shoot Me" and "Walker, Texas Ranger."

So, watch for Karmyn Tyler to do great things in the future and know that she is a proud Eagle and fellow graduate of A&M-Texarkana. See, Eagles really do fly higher.
