A&M-Texarkana is proud to introduce...ACE!

There's a new face on the Texas A&M University-Texarkana campus. ACE, the new mascot, was revealed by the A&M-Texarkana Student Affairs Council (SAC) on January 24, 2006. ACE, an acronym for Advancing Community Education, made his first debut to a crowd of eagerly awaiting fans in the Eagle's Nest. The eagle's name, chosen through a contest, was submitted by student Scott Hanes. The eagle was selected as the official school mascot in 1996. It represents strength and stature and is a traditional symbol for our country. The eagle can also be seen in the University's seal and also on the official A&M-Texarkana class ring.

ACE will be a proud fixture of this wonderful campus. Thanks to the SAC members for "Hatching a Tradition". If you see ACE coming your way, be sure to shake his hand and welcome him aboard!
