

Research Interests:

1. Political Economy
2. Economic Development
3. Social and Economic Inequality
4. Administration of Justice

Godpower Okereke, Ph.D.

7101 University Avenue ■ Texarkana, TX 75503 ■ 903.223.3163 ■
gokereke@tamut.edu

Professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice; June 2002– Present, Texas A&M University-Texarkana

Courses Taught Within the last Two Years:

Sociological Theory; Social Stratification; Ethnic & Cultural Diversity in America; Deviance and Deviant Behavior; Law and Society; Crime and Delinquency; and Senior Seminar.

Education:

BS Degree in Criminal Justice, 1986. University of Central Oklahoma, Edmond, Oklahoma.

MA Degree in Criminal Justice, 1987. University of Central Oklahoma, Edmond, Oklahoma

Ph.D. in Sociology, 1992. Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Oklahoma

Academic Experience:

Fayetteville State University, Fayetteville, North Carolina. 1992-2002
Texas A&M University- Texarkana; Texarkana, TX 2002-Present

Significant Professional Publications (Past 5 Years)

Okereke, Godpower O. (2020). "Gender Wage Gap in Contemporary America." International Journal of Gender and Women's Studies. Vol. 8., No. 2, December, 2020.

Okereke, Godpower O. (2022). "The Apartheid System of Government in South Africa." Sunset Baptist Church Bulletin. Vol. 4, April, 2022.

Okereke, Godpower O. (2023). "Income Inequality in the United States: A Review and Analysis." International Journal of Business and Public Administration Disciplines. Volume 20, Number 1, Winter: 2023.