The cost of attendance (COA) is an estimate of what it costs the typical student to attend college. It includes tuition and fees, room and board, and allowances for books, supplies, transportation, and personal expenses. It is important for a student to budget and make wise decisions regarding how to utilize the financial aid funds they receive.

The figures below are the estimated cost of attendance allowances for full-time Undergraduate and Graduate students at A&M-Texarkana for the 2009-2010 award year. In some situations, the Financial Aid Office may consider an increase to a student's budget on a case-by-case basis for certain costs such as, a one-time computer purchase, or unexpected medical expenses, etc. If a student believes he/she has a situation that merits a budget increase, the student is encouraged to contact the Financial aid Office. A letter requesting an increase must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office as well as documentation to support the request.
