

Law & Theory Studies Certificate of Completion Application

The Political Science Program awards a student the Law & Theory Studies Certificate of Completion for advanced study of U.S. constitutional law and theory by meeting the following requirements:

- 1) earn a "B" or higher in each of at least four (12 SCH) classes identified as Law & Theory Studies Courses (any of these may also count toward a Bachelor's degree),
- 2) prepare and present an approved Law & Theory scholarship project in a professional setting (this may be one done for a class), and
- 3) apply for the Law & Theory Studies Certificate at least a month before graduating.

Name: _____ Expected Graduation Date: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Major: _____ Minor: _____

Consulted with Political Science Coordinator about Project: Yes No

Project Title: _____ Presentation Venue & Date: _____

Law & Theory Studies Courses Completed & Grade:

___ CJ 340 Criminal Law and Procedure, Grade: _____

___ CJ 430 Rights of Accused and Convicted Offenders, Grade: _____

___ GBUS 456 Social, Political, and Legal Environment, Grade: _____

___ HONR 345 Advanced Academic Argument, Grade: _____

___ MCOM 305 Media Law and Ethics, Grade: _____

___ PSCI 320 Introduction to Constitutional Law, Grade: _____

___ PSCI 410 American Political Theory, Grade: _____

___ PSCI 426 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, Grade: _____

___ PSCI 427 Public Law, Grade: _____

___ SOC/CJ 315 Law and Society, Grade: _____

___ SOC 345 Sociology of Crime and Justice, Grade: _____

Applicant's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Return completed application to gary.bugh@tamut.edu or UC 225 by November 15 (Fall graduation) or April 15 (Spring graduation). The Certificate is not for academic credential or credit.